Three-Lane Closure of I-495 North at Route 123 Cancelled Sunday, Monday Nights

The Dulles Corridor Metrorail Project has announced that the previously scheduled closures of the three right lanes of northbound I-495 at Route 123 are cancelled and the northbound and southbound exits to Route 123 from the beltway will remain open for the overnights of Sunday, Feb. 20, and Monday, Feb. 21.

The closures are expected to resume Tuesday, Feb. 22, between 11 p.m. and 5 a.m., and continue through Friday, Feb. 25.

Motorists should still expect frequent, overnight closures in this area for the remainder of the year as construction of the bridge over the Beltway continues.
